LETTER FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

As we continue our journey of Advent in the second week of Advent, the Church once again leads us into the wilderness. We hear many voices distracting us from the true meaning of Advent. We hear the voice of anger in the midst of bankruptcy settlements, the voice of ICE and fear, and yet—we also hear the voice of healing, compassion and empathy. There standing under the vast Judean sky, we meet a strange and powerful figure, John the Baptist, clothed in camel's hair, with a voice that shakes the stillness of the desert: "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is near!"

At first, it may seem surprising that the Church gives us this fiery preacher in a season we often associate with soft lights, Christmas carols and quiet expectations. Yet, John's message seems stern and even unsettling. He speaks of axes at the roots of trees and a winnowing fork in the Messiah's hand. And yet, this passage is one of the most hopeful messages of Advent. Because it tells us that God is not finished with us, not with our world, not with our families, and not with our hearts.

The apostle Matthew tells us that the word of God comes not in the temple, nor in the palace, but "in the wilderness of Judea." The wilderness is a place of emptiness, disorientation and uncertainty, and even so, it is also the place where God's new beginnings often take root.

In Advent, we acknowledge that hope does not require perfect circumstances. It is born in the wilderness, in places of our lives, in those moments that feel barren, confusing, and unfinished. John's presence there, teaches us that God meets us where we are, not where we pretend to be and that alone, is hope.

John is the voice crying out, "Prepare the way of the Lord." Hope requires preparation. It calls us to make space, that space in our schedules, space in our priorities, space in our hearts—so that our hearts can receive a greater gift.

In this second week of Advent, we are invited to ask:

- What crooked path in my life needs straightening?
- What rough place in my heart needs smoothing?
 - Where is God calling me to begin again?

These questions are not ones of burdens, rather, they are pathways to hope. Let us prepare the way. Let us welcome the One who comes with mercy, with justice, with Spirit and fire. And let us hold fast to this Advent truth, the kingdom of heaven is near, and that is our hope.

Pax,

Fr. Chung Tran, C.Ss.R.

MEET A REDEMPTORIST

Rev. Patrick Keyes, C.Ss.R.

Before my first profession as a Redemptorist, I felt called to work with the Latino community in the United States. I have worked in parishes in California, Colorado, Kansas, Illinois, Minnesota, Mississippi, Ohio, and New York. I am currently stationed in our formation community in Mexico City, where we have 14 young men in the first stages of preparation for Redemptorist Life. The joy and hope of the Latino community both in the U.S. and in Mexico has been an inspiration to me. They have a great devotion to the Blessed Mother, most especially under the title of Our Lady of Guadalupe. When the Blessed Mother appeared to Saint Juan Diego he expressed his many concerns and she responded, "Do not be afraid, am I not here who am your mother?" The great faith of the Hispanic community reminds me that I have nothing to fear; God's mother Mary is here with me.

Save St. Mary's Assumption Church – Restoration Capital Campaign

St. Mary's is one of the most beautiful and historic churches in New Orleans. It is also the final resting place of Blessed Francis Seelos, a Redemptorist priest who ministered to his parish, especially those who were sick and dying of the yellow fever epidemic. Because of heroic care for others, he contracted the illness himself and died of it. His selfless dedication has placed him on the path to sainthood in the Catholic Church. After 164 years of age and climate—which is hot, humid, and vulnerable to storms, and hurricanes—have taken a toll on St. Mary's. As a result, the church has sustained serious damage to the interior plaster walls and ceiling. As stewards of this treasure and being deeply devoted to the legacy of Blessed Francis Seelos, the Redemptorists of the parish are raising the necessary funds to preserve this beautiful church. Their "Save St. Mary's Campaign Committee" is organizing and directing its efforts to restore St. Mary's to its original beauty, while fortifying the structure for future generations. We want to thank all those who donated and contributed to our Save St. Mary's Restoration Fund to help pay for the Exterior Renovations of our Church.

We are prayerful and hopeful that we will continue to receive contributions to help fund Phase II, Interior Renovations—to restore the damaged walls and plaster inside of the church, to help repair all of the interior cracks, to preserve the antique plaster carvings, to repaint the interior with historic colors, and other interior renovations as needed.

Would you consider helping us raise funds to complete the Interior Restoration of the Church?
